
The Seven Deadly Sins as a moral map

Galen Ananta

Beacon Light School

BIBLE PRESENTATION • NON-LINEAR

The Seven Deadly Sins as a moral map

Choose any doorway. Each station works independently: what the sin disorders, where Scripture speaks, and which virtue reorders love.

click the Bible icon to return to this slide.

Wrath

anger without mercy

Pride

self above God

Greed

possessions as master

Gluttony

appetite without restraint

Choose a station

Lust

desire without love

Envy

resenting another's good

Bibliography

sources & references

Sloth

love grown cold

The traditional seven-sin list is a Christian teaching tool rooted in biblical themes, not one single seven-item Bible verse.

Pride turns the self into the final authority

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR

“But he giveth more grace.
Wherefore he saith, God
resisteth the proud, but giveth grace unto the humble.

James 4:6

Core disorder

Correction feels like humiliation; dependence feels like weakness.

Biblical pattern

Babel, Pharaoh, and Nebuchadnezzar show power hardening into resistance against God.

Prompt

Where does confidence become refusal to receive wisdom, limits, or grace?

Counter-virtue: humility — truthful dependence on God without self-contempt.

02

Greed

Use this station for money, security, scarcity, generosity, and the temptation to measure life by accumulation.

STATION 02 • GREED

Greed makes gifts into masters

Resources serving love

- Provision becomes stewardship.
- Work is ordered toward neighbor and household.
- Generosity breaks fear of scarcity.

Resources ruling the heart

- Security is outsourced to surplus.
- People become costs, threats, or tools.
- “More” never finally becomes enough.

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR: “No man can serve two masters: for either he will hate the one, and love the other; or else he will hold to the one, and despise the other. Ye cannot serve God and mammon.” — Matthew 6:24

Lust turns desire inward until the other person disappears

Good desire

Receives the body as a gift and honors another person as image-bearer.

Disordered gaze

Detaches desire from covenant, patience, and love of neighbor.

Reduced person

The other becomes a fantasy, conquest, or consumable image.

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR

Matthew 5:27 “Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery.”

COUNTER-VIRTUE

Chastity: rightly ordered love that protects dignity, fidelity, and patience.

Envy turns comparison into resentment of grace

	A gift to learn from Another person's strength can call me toward gratitude or encouragement.	A threat to my worth Their good feels like evidence that I am losing status, love, or blessing.
	Communal joy "Rejoice with those who rejoice" becomes shared abundance.	Quiet sabotage Resentment minimizes, mocks, or withholds blessing from another.

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR

“Where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there will be disorder.”

James 3:16 “For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work.”

Gluttony is appetite without a spiritual governor

Not only food

The pattern can attach to comfort, entertainment, scrolling, consumption, or any appetite demanding immediate satisfaction.

DISCIPLINE IS NOT DISDAIN

Biblical restraint does not call the body evil; it teaches the body to serve gratitude, worship, and love.

Question

What do I reach for when I am anxious, bored, lonely, or unwilling to wait?

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR: 1 Corinthians 6:12 “All things are lawful unto me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.”

Wrath escalates anger until mercy becomes weakness

HOW ANGER DEFORMS OVER TIME

Wound

Pain is real and names a violation.

Judgment

Anger claims perfect knowledge of the other.

Retaliation

Mercy is rejected as loss of control.

Anger can name evil

Righteous anger remains submitted to God's truth and timing.

Wrath demands revenge

It treats the offender as an enemy to crush, not a neighbor to confront.

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR

James 1:19–20; Ephesians 4:26–27.
Counter-virtue: patience and meekness.

Sloth is resistance to love's effort

07

Use this as a closing station because it asks what love is calling us to do next.

In Christian tradition, sloth is spiritual apathy: avoiding the weight of vocation, prayer, repentance, service, or attention.

Apathy

“It does not matter enough to move me.”

Avoidance

Distraction becomes easier than obedience.

Neglect

Love, gifts, and responsibilities go unattended.

Diligent love

Small faithful action reopens desire for God and neighbor.

SCRIPTURE ANCHOR: Romans 12:11 “Not slothful in business; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;.”

Bibliography

Sources referenced across slides 2–9

Primary biblical references

- James 4:6
- Matthew 6:24
- Matthew 5:27
- James 3:16
- 1 Corinthians 6:12
- James 1:19–20
- Ephesians 4:26–27
- Romans 12:11

Deck framing note

The traditional seven-deadly-sins framework is presented here as a Christian teaching tool rooted in biblical themes rather than a single seven-item Bible verse.

