The Good Samaritan

One day an important Pharisee came to Jesus and asked, "Teacher, what must I do to get eternal life?" Jesus answered by saying, "What does it say in the law? How do you interpret it?" "You shall love your God with all your heart, soul, strength and mind and you should love your neighbour as yourself," After this Jesus said, "You have answered correctly. So go and do it. And you shall live," "But who is my neighbour?" the man asked. Jesus replied by telling this parable.

A man was walking down from Jerusalem to Jericho. Some thieves came by and they attacked him, they wounded him, stole his money, clothes and left him to die. Now a priest came along the road, but he didn't help him, he just walked past on the other side of the road. Then a Levite came by, but he didn't help either, he just walked on just as the other man had done.

A Samaritan came along the road, and he had compassion on him. He bandaged his wounds, put him on his donkey and took him to an inn. The Samaritan gave the innkeeper two coins and said, "Take care of this man, if it costs more than this then I will pay it to you on my return," and so he went on his way.

When Jesus finished speaking, He asked, "Which of those three men was the man's neighbour?" The Pharisee answered and said, "The one who was kind to him," Finally Jesus said, "Go and do the same,"

The End.
