

Theme: Loyalty

Bible Verse: Proverbs 17:17

“A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.”

Sermon:

Good morning everyone.

Today I will be speaking about loyalty.

Loyalty means being faithful and dependable, standing by someone even when things are difficult. The Bible says in Proverbs 17:17, “A friend loves at all times, and a brother is born for adversity.”

This verse teaches us that a loyal friend does not only stay when things are easy or happy. A loyal friend stays through hard times, too. Loyalty means not giving up on people quickly. It means being honest, kind, and trustworthy.

The greatest example of loyalty is Jesus Christ. Jesus was loyal to God the Father and to His love for us. Even when people rejected Him, mocked Him, and crucified Him, Jesus still loved them and prayed, “Father, forgive them.”

Daniel is a strong example of loyalty because he remained faithful to God even when the law of the land told him not to pray. In Daniel 6, the king made a decree that no one should pray to anyone except the king. But Daniel did not hide his faith. He continued to pray to God three times a day, just as he had always done.

Even when Daniel was thrown into the lions’ den, he stayed loyal to God. God protected him and shut the mouths of the lions. Loyalty means staying faithful to God even when it is difficult or when others pressure us to do wrong.

Ruth showed great loyalty to her mother-in-law, Naomi. After Ruth’s husband died, Naomi told Ruth she could return to her own family. But Ruth refused to leave Naomi. She chose to stay with her, care for her, and follow Naomi’s God.

Ruth said, “Where you go I will go, and where you stay I will stay. Your people will be my people and your God my God.” This showed loyalty, love, sacrifice, and commitment. Loyalty means standing by someone in love, especially during hard times.

These examples show that Loyalty is not just something we say. It is shown through our actions.

As students, we can show loyalty by being faithful to God, obeying our parents and teachers, keeping our promises, standing up for what is right, and being good friends to others. We should not talk behind our friends’ backs or abandon them when they need help.

So today, let us ask God to help us remain loyal—to Him, to our families, to our friends, and to what is right.
