

Title: If My People Pray

If my people will humble their heart,
Turn from their sin and choose to depart,
Seek out the Lord, His mercy will flow,
Forgiveness and healing He longs to bestow.

From heaven above He hears every plea,
Restoring the land with grace abundantly.
In prayer and repentance His children find,
A God of compassion, faithful and kind.

So rise up in faith, let voices be strong,
Return to the Lord, to whom we belong.
His promise is sure, His Word will remain,
Through humble devotion His blessings we gain.
