Describe how you came to your end result and why you chose this subject:

For my general photography photo, I wasn't sure what to photograph first, but then I realized I live on a farm and already had the perfect subject - my goats. Since they're part of my everyday life, choosing them felt natural and personal. I captured them in their normal environment to keep the photo authentic and real. In the end, I liked how something so familiar to me turned into an interesting final image.
