

Hank Gospel

Clown Act – Tamales! Nailovolovo

(Comes jogging in)

Whew what a long run. Oh, hello there my name is Clarisa the clown.

Sorry form coming like this, all sweaty and all I was just in the middle of an exercise.

Let me just clean up a bit. (pulls out handkerchief, and pretends to wipe face)

You know this handkerchief reminds me off a story I learned. It's a story about love, cleanliness, righteousness, and grace. Would you like to hear this story too? (wait for response)

Great, so buckle up for the story of the Hank Gospel.

This is Hank the handkerchief (holds up clean handkerchief) say hello Hank.

Hello everyone (changes voice).

You see Hank is just like you and me, he has a life, a personality, dreams, goals, and many, many, many choices that He has to make.

For example, what do you think Hank's favourite colour is? (wait for response)

Or what's his favourite snack? (wait for response)

Well Hank what's your favourite color (holds handkerchief up to ear as if listening to it)

Uh ha, and what about your favourite snack (holds handkerchief up again) uh ha, uh ha.

Eewwww, well folks Hank said that his favourite color is white, and his favourite snack is sandwich, a booger sandwich. What's that Hank, (holds up handkerchief again) ohhh, a tuna sandwich.

Well, Hank, like us, is also affected by sin. Sins like lying, being mean, disobeying his parents, saying ugly words, and many other things. (as sins are mention put marks on the handkerchief) Oh no look at all the sinful choices Hank has chosen to do. You see the Bible says in Romans 3:23 "All have sinned and fallen short of the glory of God." That means that just like Hank each of us has made a choice to sin, and when we sin we fall short of God' glory.

Now Hank wants to go to Heaven, and he knows that with all this sin he can't get to Heaven. So what does he do? He decides to do GOOD WORKS to fix his sin. What do you think are some GOOD WORKS that Hank should do? Maybe sharing his things willingly, or cleaning without being asked. How about going to church? He could be nice, and be helpful to others. (while going through WORKS, dip handkerchief in WORKS jar/water gets dirty and stains stay on handkerchief)

Oh no, did it work? Did Hanks GOOD WORKS make him clean? (wait for response) Your right, it didn't work. You see good works are wonderful, but they can't wash away our sin. In Ephesians 2:8-9 it says, "For by grace you are saved through faith; and not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: not of works, lest any man boast."

So how does Hank get his sins clean, and enter Heaven? Well he meets someone very special, Jesus (show JESUS jar)

Remember how I said that all of us have sinned, and if there's sin we can't get to Heaven to be with God. Well, God knew that us to go to Him, someone had to pay the price for sin, and that someone had to be completely sinless, without one teeny, tiny bit of sin. Since the only one who could pay that price was God, He sent His Son, Jesus, who never sinned to be our payment. Like it says in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His only begotten Son, that whoever believes in Him should not perish but have everlasting life." So Jesus died for our sins, but He also rose again so He could wash us clean, and we could be with God in Heaven. Just as it says in Isaiah 1:18, "Though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool." (dip handkerchief into JESUS jar/ turns white)

So Hank chooses to live for Jesus, he asks Jesus to be the Lord and Saviour of his life. To guide and lead Hank through all the days of his life. To be the reason behind every GOOD WORK that he does.(as speaking dip handkerchief into WORKS jar/dirty water turns clear) Wow so now not only will Hank go to Heaven, but all the GOOD WORKS he does are truly good, that's because when we live for Jesus and He changes our hearts, our good works are also changed as well. They aren't marked by our sins, but by Jesus' righteousness, and our good works truly shine for Him.

Wow, I simply love that story. So remember, if you want to do GOOD WORKS you need to ask JESUS into your life and He will help you do true good works and live a righteous life. Alright, I gotta get back to my run. See ya (as leaving sing "Walking with Jesus"
