God turns at back of stage...slowly comes forward through creation week.....creating heavens and earth, light, trees, vegetation, moon, stars, fish, birds....God saw that it was good

God creates man...forms man and breathes life into the man.

Man rises as a living being.

God shows man all that he has created.

God and man have fellowship.

God shows man a door and tells him never to go through that door (God moves to back of stage)

Man is tempted and wonders what is behind the door, so he opens the door and goes in.

Door 1: Man sees a wild party...someone offers him a cigarette which he chokes on....someone offers him a beer which he drinks and then vomits up...man does not like the place and leaves.

Door 2: Man tries the next door and goes in....he sees people studying, so he joins them in their study...he starts to get tired and weary and tries to stay awake...he starts to get headaches...leaves in search of another door.

Door 3: Man enters a new door and sees people gambling...takes money from his pocket two times...wins then loses...keeps on playing and keeps on losing and finds he has no more money left (empty pockets) so leaves and starts searching again.

Door 4: Man finds another door which opens up to the Olympics.....man shows his muscles, that he's strong and fit.....starts running but fails, so is given drugs....man tries again and wins gold medal.....feels fame and glory but it passes and he's soon all alone...dejected, leaves the place and searches again.

Door 5: Man finds new door and goes in...sees a beautiful lady.....gives her flowers, a present and gets down on his knee to propose to her with a ring but she slaps him in the face...man is devastated and ends up with a broken heart...left very unhappy and searches for another door.

Door 6: Man enters door of religion and joins a choir and sees people dressed right and acting religious so tries to copy them...copies praying but gets no answer so gives up and leaves.

Man starts thinking of all the doors he's tried (religion but got no answer, relationship but was hurt, fame and glory which was short-lived and empty, gambling but lost all his money, studying but shuddered at the thought, drinking but ended up vomiting, smoking but ended up choking)

Man feels despair and has lost all hope

God reaches out to man, but man is angry and blinded by his burdens, hurts and sins and crucifies the Lord.

Man mocks and laughs at God but collapses in his despair.

God breaks the chains of death and reaches out in love to save man.

Man realises God is God of love and mercy...man repents and turns back to God his Creator.

God restores man and once again, God and man have fellowship.

Together they go to each door and lock the door and then at the final door, man gives the key to God, never to turn back.

God shows him the right way and together they go off stage in fellowship.
