

Title: "The People Return to the Lord".

2 Chronicles 7:14)

Narrator:

Long ago, the people of Israel faced drought and sorrow. Their hearts had grown distant from God, and the land cried out for mercy.

Elder (speaking to the crowd):

"My children, the Lord calls us to return! He says, 'If My people humble themselves and pray, I will heal their land.'"

Young Woman:

"But will he still hear us? We have turned away so many times."

Elder:

"Yes, child. His mercy never fails. Seek Him with all your heart, and He will forgive."

Narrator:

So the people knelt together, lifting their voices in prayer.

Crowd (together):

"Lord, forgive us! Restore our hearts! Heal our land!"

Narrator:

From heaven above, the Lord heard their plea. Rain fell upon the fields, and joy returned to the people.

Elder (with gratitude):

"His promise is sure, His Word will remain. Through humble devotion, His blessings we gain."
