State the purpose, or reason for your project:

The purpose of my project was to explain all about my treasured island Rotuma, and to share my knowledge of the beautiful island with people.

Record the process or steps used in preparing your project:

1. Printed photos and information.
2. Stuck it onto a black vanguard sheet.
3. Arranged it neatly, and added the final details.

What has been illustrated, or what is the conclusion drawn from your project:

From this project we can learn about the many lovely places and districts of my island Rotuma. I myself have come to appreciate my heritage and culture.

Give a Scriptural application or reference for your project:

(1 Corinthians 12:12)

Give a brief background of your collection or topic that you researched, and why you chose that particular item/topic:

I chose this topic because I wanted to learn more about how people on a small island organize their community and work together. I thought it was very interesting how the seven districts can have their own chiefs and traditions, but still join hands during big celebrations and times of need. Learning about Rotuma helped me understand how important teamwork, respect, and culture are in the Pacific.
