INTRODUCTION

(spoken before the poem — does not count toward time)

My name is Kent, representing Cherish Academy.

The poem I will recite today is "Because of God's Love" by Ann Belka.

It is based on Lamentations 3:22–23 —

*"Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed,
for his compassions never fail.*

They are new every morning; great is your faithfulness."

THE POEM

Lord, because of Your love,
so great and so true
because of Your kindness

mercy and grace too.

By my worries and cares,
consumed I'll not be
nor will they eat away
the trust I have in Thee.

Lord, because of Your pity,
that never runs out or fails
because of Your compassion
that never fades or pales.

No matter what life,
may throw or toss my way
I'll not be crushed regardless of how much they weigh.

Lord, because of Your faithfulness,
that is new every morning
I can and will face today . . .
no matter what may be coming!

— Ann Belka

SCRIPTURE REFERENCE

*Because of the Lord's great love we are not consumed,
for his compassions never fail.
They are new every morning;
great is your faithfulness.*
