

A Christian Life

Every morning, Daniel woke before sunrise. He would sit quietly with his Bible, pray, and thank God for another day. He didn't have a perfect life, but he trusted that God would guide him through every challenge.

At school and at work, Daniel tried to be kind to everyone. He forgave those who hurt him, helped people in need, and spoke the truth even when it was difficult. Some people laughed at his faith, but he chose to love them instead of becoming angry.

One day, Daniel found a lost wallet filled with money. No one was watching, but he remembered that God always sees what we do. He returned the wallet to its owner, who was amazed by his honesty. Daniel smiled and said, "I only did what Christ has taught me."

As the years passed, Daniel's life became a light to others. His words, actions, and love pointed people toward Jesus. He learned that being a Christian wasn't about being perfect—it was about trusting God, following Jesus, and showing His love every day.

"Let your light shine before others, that they may see your good deeds and glorify your Father in heaven." — Matthew 5:16

Written by: Allen baro