

☐ Story: The Fruit of the Spirit (Author -Unknown)

In a small village, the people gathered to learn from Paul's letter. He spoke of a life filled with the Spirit, a life that bore fruit not of trees, but of the heart.

A teacher gently explains, "My friends, the Spirit of God gives us gifts. Not gold or silver, but love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and self-control."

A young boy named Jared quietly asks the teacher, "But Teacher, how can love be a fruit? I see apples and grapes, but not love."

The teacher smiles and says, "Love grows in the heart, just as fruit grows on a tree. When we walk with God, His Spirit makes our lives sweet and nourishing for others."

The people listened, and each began to see how the Spirit's fruit could change their lives.

A young woman softly explains, "When I forgive my neighbor, that is kindness. When I wait without anger, that is patience."

An Elder spoke with firmness, but joyfully said, "Yes! And when we trust God even in hard times, that is faithfulness. These fruits show the world that we belong to Him."

The crowd lifted their voices together saying,
"Lord, let Your Spirit grow in us! May our lives bear fruit that honors You!"

----- THE END -----