Describe how you came to your end result and why you chose this subject:
I chose this photo because it shows a story of resilience. The subject, pak Jarwo, is the owner of my dad's go-to bicycle shop. He is 60 and has owned the shop for 40 years. When I asked him about the shop, he mentioned that there were many times when the shop struggled to gain customers, even early on! Despite that, pak Jarwo continued to work. Now, his efforts show through his 40 year old shop where there's always a bicycle to repair every day.
From a technical standpoint, I chose to submit this specific photo due to a good angle, near-perfect lighting highlighting the main focal points, and an overall good composition and vibe.
